

Germany – Bavarian Camino de Santiago Munich to Fussen (2025)
Individual Self-Guided
8 days/7 nights

Starting in Munich, Bavaria's vibrant capital on the Isar, this walking tour has many more treats in store for you such as little villages where time stood still, several impressive monasteries, churches with typical Baroque turrets and tiny chapels. The strikingly beautiful landscape with its green pastures, meadows and forests, murmuring streams, roaring rivers and idyllic lakes have a calming effect on both mind and body. Lake Ammersee, Bavaria's third biggest lake and Lake Forgensee in the Allgäu region are both part of the itinerary. Finally two very special highlights wait in Füssen – 'Neuschwanstein' and 'Hohenschwangau', King Ludwig's two fairy tale castles. The breathtaking countryside, amazing cultural sights and welcoming Bavarian atmosphere will captivate and enchant you!

Itinerary

Day 1: Individual arrival in Munich

Day 2: Munich - Schäftlarn 23 km + 300 m – 150 m

From Munich along the river Isar heading south. Past a zoo and taking in final amazing views of Munich, through the forests along the Isar to Schäftlarn monastery with its inn and beer garden. For arrivals after September 11 double overnight stay in Schäftlarn instead of overnight stay in Munich.

Day 3: Schäftlarn - Ammersee 20 km + 150 m – 200 m

Short transfer to Starnberg, Bavaria's well known sailing and spa paradise. From Starnberg via a gorge called the 'Maisinger Schlucht' to the Maisingersee, an idyllic lake surrounded by reeds and inviting beer gardens. Onwards to the Andechs monastery with stunning views of Lake Ammersee. Walking trail descends to the banks of this untouched lake on to Herrsching or by boat to Diessen.

Day 4: Ammersee - Weilheim 26 km + 200 m – 200 m

A comfortable walk to Paterzeller Eibenwald, a forest with the biggest yew tree population in Bavaria. Through the Oderdinger Filz and characteristic Bavarian countryside on to Weilheim, a historic trade city. The next three days pass through a region in the South of Bavaria between the rivers Lech and Loisach called 'Pfaffenwinkel', which is renowned for its diversity in pilgrimage churches.

Day 5: Weilheim - Peiting 20 km + 450 m – 150 m

You leave Weilheim and hike on the Way of St. James through the small monastery village of Polling and along the Ammer River over the hills of Berghof to Peißenberg. The pilgrimage path leads you to the Hoher Peißenberg, from where you can enjoy fantastic views of the Zugspitze and the Tyrolean and Allgäu mountains.

Day 6: Peiting - Buching 24 km + 300 m – 300 m

You start your hike through the gorge Ammerschlucht on a fascinating trail system above the river to Rottenbuch with monastery worth seeing. On the Pfaffenwinkler Milchweg you walk through the mill-village Wildsteig and continue to church Wieskirche, the famous church of pilgrimage (UNESCO World Heritage). Then you walk over boardwalks through the bog Wiesfilz to Steingaden. From there a short bus journey takes you to Halblech/Trauchgau

Day 7: From Halblech to Füssen/Surroundings 17 km + 300 m – 300 m

As a highlight of this walking tour takes you to the banks of Lake Forggensee, the gateway to the Allgäu region. Walk along the lake straight to the world famous fairy tale castle 'Neuschwanstein'. Passing Lake Schwansee, the trail leads to Fussen, the end of an exciting week of walking.
