Itinerary Day to Day

Day 1: Rothenburg ob der Tauber

Individual arrival in Rothenburg o. d. Tauber. On your first evening of your cycling holiday, it is possible to take a walk with the Rothenburg night watchman through the romantically lit alleys.

Day 2: Rothenburg ob der Tauber – Herrieden/ Ansbach 45-55 km

You cycle through the upper Altmühl valley past the small Altmühl valley town of Leutershausen, where a memorial serve as a reminder of its most famous son Gustav Weißkopf. The medieval ambience can still be felt in Herrieden, your stage destination. One can also spend the night in Ansbach as an alternative.

Day 3: Herrieden/Ansbach – Weißenburg Region 55 - 65 km

You cycle along the leisurely flowing Altmühl and reach the romantic Altmühlsee, which invites you to take a break. Located in the Altmühltal nature park, you will find historic Weißenburg and the spa town of Treuchtlingen.

Day 4: Weißenburg - Eichstätt 45 - 55 km

Bizarre rock formations now line the further course of the river through a landscape of unique beauty. In Solnhofen, home of the primeval bird Archeopteryx, you can experience living primeval times by searching for fossils in a quarry. A baroque natural jewel is the episcopal city of Eichstätt. Chocolate and coffee lovers will find culinary delights in the Café Chocolatique.

2000 years of art and cultural history with its medieval cityscape. The stone Bridge and the St. Peter's cathedral are also sights worth seeing on a city round tour.

Day 5: Eichstätt - Riedenburg 55 - 75 km

Visit the lock system of the Rhine-Main-Danube Canal near Dietfurt today. The path leads you through the Gungoldinger juniper heath to the three-castle town of Riedenburg, where you will find a magnificent collection of crystals and precious stones in the Crystal Museum. In order to shorten the route to approx. 55 km, there is the option of reserving a transfer from Dietfurt to Riedenburg on site (on your own, details with the travel documents).

Day 6: Riedenburg - Regensburg 65 km

It is recommended to visit the Befreiungshalle (Hall of Liberation) in Kelheim. An imposing spectacle of nature is the breakthrough of the Danube at Weltenburg. Regensburg is considered to be a memorial of

Bikes

Unisex Bike

Ladies Bike

Mens Bike

Electric Bike

The bikes have 7 gears with back pedal brake or 21/24 gears with freewheel. Please note that we offer mostly unisex bikes (the same frame for ladies and men, no cross beam), but we also have some ladies and men specific bikes.

The bikes are equipped with one saddle bag and a speedometer. On request we can also provide a map holder or handle bar bag and/or a second saddle bag. Each bike is equipped with a small repair kit, for minor repairs. We provide a bike lock for every two bikes. We do not offer rental helmets because of sanitary reasons, but recommend you to use your own.

The switchable electric drive gives you a new bike feeling. Cyclists of varying fitness can book a bicycle tour together. Climbs can be handled easily.
