Day 1: Arrival in Stralsund

in its own right. The old Hanseatic city is the gateway to the island of Rügen. The new Rügen Bridge, next to the old Rügen Dam, impressively connects the mainland with the island. Overnight stay in Stralsund.

2. Day: Stralsund - Bergen, approx. 40-52 km

You cycle over the old Rügen Dam to the island of Rügen to Altefähr. Along the Strelasund, your route leads along the Kubitzer Bodden and then on through the west of the island to Bergen. At the edge, the tour touches the National Park Vorpommersche Boddenlandschaft. Overnight stay in Bergen.

Day 3: Bergen - seaside resorts (Sellin/Binz), approx. 29-34 km

The Rugard in Bergen was once the site of a Slavic castle complex. Today you can enjoy the view over the island from the observation tower. Putbus, planned as the residence of Prince Malte zu Putbus, is the intermediate destination of today's stage. The ride takes you along charming paths to the Baltic Sea coast of Rügen. Overnight stay in one of the seaside resorts (Binz/Sellin).

Day 4: Excursion to Mönchgut, approx. 26-36 km

A large wooden gate marks the entrance to the Mönchgut, where monks once tried to dig the south of the island away from the main island. The Zickersche Berge mountains tempt you with meadows and juniper heath. You explore this archipelago with the option of shortening the way back by train (on your own). Overnight stay as on the previous day.

Day 5: Seaside resorts - Sassnitz, approx. 20-45 km

The wooded heights of the Granitz will remind you of the German low mountain ranges in miniature, if it weren't for the occasional view of the Baltic Sea. It is particularly impressive from the Granitz hunting lodge. Flat and easy, always along the beach, you cycle from Binz to Mukran. In Mukran, the ferry port, you can dream after the ships. Overnight stay in Sassnitz and the surrounding area.

6. Day: Sassnitz - Chalk cliffs - Cape Arkona - North Jasmund / Wittow, approx. 44-77 km

Today you will explore the chalk cliffs, a landmark of the island of Rügen. Visit the Königsstuhl National Park Centre (under your own management) with its chalk coast adventure world. Walk a short distance through the extensive beech forests and enjoy the view of the Baltic Sea. Further along the trail, the view soon opens up to Cape Arkona. Overnight stay on North Jasmund (Glowe) or on Wittow (Breege/Juliusruh/surroundings).

7. Day: North Jasmund / Wittow - Hiddensee - Stralsund, approx. 20-34 km + ferry trip

By boat (incl.) you will travel through a Bodden landscape to the island of Hiddensee. A short hike to the heights of the Dornbusche is worthwhile. The island can be cycled along dikes or heath paths. As a cyclist, you are king, because the island is car-free. In the afternoon, take the ferry (incl.) back to Stralsund. Overnight stay in Stralsund.

8. Day: Departure from Stralsund

Return of the rental bikes in the course of the morning. Return journey on your own or extension.
