

Ireland – Dublin and Wicklow Bicycle Tour (2025)
Individual Self-Guided
8 Day/7 Nights

Many visit Dublin without seeing its best feature, the coast. Our safari takes in the beautiful southeast coastline as well as the magnificent landscapes and rich history and folklore that the Wicklow Mountains has to offer. Our self-guided Wicklow tour starts from Dublin, we take straight to the coast passing through Dalkey (with its many famous residents) and on towards the beautiful Killiney Bay (likened to the Bay of Naples) and the tiny village of Enniskerry where we spend one night. The following day you head into the heart of the Wicklow Mountains as you explore the 'Garden of Ireland' in all its beauty. It is in its deep glens that much of the peculiar charm of Wicklow scenery is to be found, with rugged natural features, rich and lavish woods, beautiful lakes and stunning valleys. You spend two nights in Laragh, located beside the monastic village of Glendalough with its ruined abbey and distinctive round tower. Here you have the opportunity to relax in the tranquil surroundings and walk one of the numerous signed ways around the surrounding lakes. We head over the mountains to Glenmalur and stay in the lovely peaceful village of Aughrim before continuing to the harboured Wicklow town. On the last day you will cycle inlands again, before being transferred back to Dublin, for a final night in this vibrant capital city.

Itinerary Day to Day

Day 1: Arrival to Dublin

You will be spending your first night in Dublin or Dun Laoghaire. Once you have checked into your accommodation, you can then spend the rest of the day exploring the many sights and sounds that have made Dublin such a lively and popular destination.

Day 2: Dublin - Enniskerry 30 km

We arrange for you to be brought to our bike shop in the south side of the city where we will fit you out with your bikes and route details. You begin the day in a leisurely fashion with a cycle along cycle paths and quiet roads to the coastal towns of Dun Laoghaire and the charming village of Dalkey, with its many famous residents where we can stop for lunch. You continue along the scenic Vico Road with spectacular views across Killiney Bay. You then head inland cycling along green fields to the village of Enniskerry where you overnight. A transfer can be arranged this evening to the famous Johnnie Foxes Pub, the highest pub in Ireland (www.jfp.ie). Here you can enjoy a uniquely traditional Irish night with good food and Guinness, along with entertainment from local musicians.

Day 3: Enniskerry - Glendalough 39km/ 48 km

In the morning you have the chance to visit the beautiful Powerscourt Gardens before heading over the stunning Sally Gap Road all the way to Roundwood for lunch. After lunch you have head via Lough Dan into the village of Laragh for the night. Laragh is located beside the monastic village of Glendalough with its ruined abbey and distinctive round tower.

Day 4: Rest Day in Glendalough

Today there is the opportunity to relax in your tranquil surroundings in Laragh/Glendalough and walk one of the numerous signed ways around the surrounding lakes. For more information please check out Glendalough Visitors Centre.

Day 5: GLENDALOUGH TO WOODENBRIDGE 40kms / 51 kms

You can choose to visit Avondale House and Forest Park, once the home of one of Ireland's greatest political leaders. The village of Avoca is another option or the wild mountain scenery on the ancient Military Road, built to allow British troops access the rebellious tribes of these formerly heavily forested valleys. All routes come together in our overnight stop of Aughrim a pretty village with much evidence in its buildings of its former glory as a granite quarrying and stonecutting centre.

Day 6: WOODENBRIDGE TO WICKLOW 48kms / 65km

You can cross the low coastal hills to ride north along the coast taking a dip in Brittas Bay, a beautiful Blue Flag beach or venture into the wooded hills on virtually traffic free roads through remote villages to view for your self the mysterious Motte Stone before descending to the coast and Wicklow, a friendly seaside town with Viking origins.

Day 7: Wicklow To Dublin 51 km

Your last day on the bike will take you inland again back towards the village of Roundwood for lunch. You can then take a different route along beautiful country roads to the village of Enniskerry where we will meet you and transfer you back into Dublin city for a final night on the tour.

Day 8: Departure

Breakfast, followed by farewell and departure for your onward journey
