

Italy- Art and Nature Cycling in Sicily (2025)

Individual Self Guided

8 days/ 7 nights

You'll start your holiday in the enchanting town of Trapani, rich of historical palaces and churches. You can rest or take the hydrofoil to explore the nearby lively island of Favignana or take the cable car and reach the medieval town of Erice. Then you will begin your cycling tour towards the Salt Pans and Wind mills of Nubia then again cycling on the coast towards Marsala passing through Mozia and to Mazara del Vallo with its famous Dancing Satyr. To end with the archaeological site of Selinunte, a wonderful site on the sea and the enchanting village of Sciacca, on the seaside.

Itinerary Day to Day

Day 1: Trapani

Independent arrival in Trapani, town rich of historical palaces and churches. Time at disposal to explore the town. Accommodation in town

Day 2: Favignana or Erice

Day at disposal to take the hydrofoil and reach the nearby island of Favignana with its enchanting beaches and azure waters or take the cable car and reach the medieval town of Erice with its Castle and narrow streets. Accommodation in Trapani

Day 3: Trapani - Mozia – Marsala 50 km

Today you will pedal in total relaxation! The panoramic road coasts the sea where the sight of the flow mills on the salinas is amazing. You will then have the chance to visit the little island of Mozia, little uncontaminated punic island, where you will find an archaeological site and a private museum. Just a little bit of kilometres to reach Marsala, beautiful town on the sea where a special liqueur, the “Marsala” is produced. Difficulty: easy

Day 4: Marsala – Mazara del Vallo 31 km

Today you will have the chance to visit the town, do some wine tasting in one of the many local wineries or just relax. Otherwise you can cross the sea and visit one of the beautiful Egadi Islands, explore the islands, enjoy the seaside or walk. Then you will reach the town of Mazara del Vallo a very nice town with a “Kasbah” known for the bronze statue called the “Dancing Satyr”. BB. Difficulty: easy

Day 5: Mazara Del Vallo – Selinunte 40 km

This stage is really great. You will cycle along the coast admiring the amazing views of the Aegadi Islands and you will cycle inland among vineyards and olive trees. After cycling you will relax admiring the archaeology in one of the most wide open parks in Europe. The archaeological park surrounding Selinunte and its monuments extends about 1.300 meters east to west. Difficulty easy

Day 6: Selinunte – Sciacca 43 km

Today you will cycle to reach the enchanting town of Sciacca, a town on the sea again. It is famous for its ceramics, its thermal baths and its religious festivals, as well as for its large fishing fleet. Difficulty: easy

Day 7: Sciacca

Time at disposal to relax on the beach or explore the town.
