Austria - Inn Cycle Path Family Bike and Adventure Tour 2021

Self- Guided

8 days / 7 nights OR 7 days / 6 nights

You start your enjoyable family cycling tour amidst the lush green mountain world of the tri-border region of Austria – Italy – Switzerland. Not only the hospitality of Tyrolean people but also the tranquil villages surrounded by giant mountains will delight you, and always along the course of the roaring river Inn. The first highlight of the tour is right at the start: the Alpine Coaster in Imst. This is the longest Alpine rollercoaster which together with the game park offer tremendous and endless fun & action and pure family enjoyment! But that is only the start, there is so much more to be discovered along the route: water lovers will enjoy the amazing bathing lakes and outdoor swimming pools. In Innsbruck's traditional old part of town you can experience pure Tyrolean culture, or you might opt for a trip to the Alpine Zoo. As a final highlight you take Europe's oldest narrow gauge railway to the amazingly glistening waters of Lake Achensee, which is surrounded by impressive mountains. The Inn-Cycle-Path: a special experience for the whole family!

Itinerary Day to Day

Day 1: Arrival at Imst

Arrival at Imst and straight to your accommodation. Imst awaits with playgrounds, various nature trails and lots more. The holiday region Imst sets a fun mood. You also have the option of exploring a precious biotope called 'Rosengartenschlucht' whilst on a walking tour.

Day 2: Imst, Adventure Day and Relaxation

Today will be a true day of adventure in Imst for you: a bike trip to the well-known 'Alpine Coaster', the longest Alpine rollercoaster in the world. So much fun! (One ride and train fare included). After that you can give the Albins game park a go, situated directly in the finish area of the Alpine Coaster, and try everything from a bird swing over a bouncing castle to a quad rally and experience whatever takes your fancy (not included). There is also a bathing lake nearby for a refreshing cool off.

Day 3: Imst– Rietz/Telfs/Pfaffenhofen 25 km

You cycle along the Southern Inn riverbank through the Imst ravine to Roppen, where you not only have plenty of the finest outdoor activities on offer but can also enjoy swimming and splashing in the 'Area 47'. On your way through the Silzer Inn water meadow you get to observe rare bird species. Then onwards through Stams and Rietz all the way to Pfaffenhofen, where you can casually end your day by playing a round of mini golf in the sports center Telfs or splashing in the swimming pool and spa in Telfs.

Day 4: Rietz – Innsbruck 35 km

From Rietz along the river Inn directly past the marvelous bird sanctuary and fishing waters of Gaißau to Inzing. In Inzing you have the option for a stopover at the Inzing outdoor swimming pool. Then onwards past Zirl all the way to the capital of the Tyrol, Innsbruck, which has so much to offer such as countless historical buildings and monuments. And do not forget to visit the 'Goldene Dachl' (gold-plated roof), or to take a train ride with the 'Nordkettenbahn' into high up Alpine territory. There is also Europe's highest zoo, the 'Alpenzoo' with a large array of various animals.

Day 5: Innsbruck – Jenbach/Strass 45 km

Today's cycle tour is slightly longer, however can easily be cut short from Innsbruck by a train or bus ride. Otherwise you leave Innsbruck again along the cycle path. You always cycle comfortably along the riverbank to Hall in Tyrol and then onwards to Wattens. Water lovers can have a great time here in the 'Alpen' swimming pool. A visit to the Swarovski Crystal worlds with playground and play tower is lots of fun for the whole family. Then past impressive rock faces you continue to Schwaz with its accessible mine and finally you reach Jenbach and Strass in the Zillertal valley – your day's end.

Day 6: Cycling Tour to Lake Achensee 25 km + cog railway

An exceptional experience for the entire family: you start in Jenbach with Europe's oldest but still operating steam cog railway (ascent and descent included) and reach the amazing Lake Achensee with an altitude of 929 meters. Then you cycle on the well maintained panorama path comfortably along the lakeside from one end to the other. Feel free to have a break anytime and have a quick cool off in this alpine lake or even visit the Adventure Park Achensee. Return trip by cog railway to Jenbach/Strass.

Day 7: Departure or extra days

Today it is time to say goodbye to the river Inn and the stunning cycle paths. Return to your starting point by either bus or train.

8 day / 7 night option:

Day – 6 as in itinerary above

Day 7: Cycle tour in the Zillertal valley 35 km

Surrounded by numerous mountain giants of around 3000 meters, you get to explore the breathtaking Zillertal valley. You take the narrow gauge railway (not included) to Mayrhofen, the start of today's tour. The cycling path leads you slightly downhill and mainly along the river 'Ziller' past the villages Zell am Ziller, Aschau and Fügen back to Strass or Jenbach. Numerous swimming lakes, adventure outdoor pools and leisure parks invite you again and again to a stopover. If you like heights then we suggest you attempt the areal high rope course in Kaltenbach. A cycling day packed with unforgettable impressions.

Day 8: Departure or extra days
