Tour Itinerary

Day 1 Copenhagen

Travel to Copenhagen on your own. Discover the lively capital while strolling through the city.

Day 2: Copenhagen -Køge

The capital's cycle paths take you around the expansive bay to Køge. Køge Bugt is densely populated and there are many restaurants and cafés near the coast where you can linger

Day 3: Køge - Roskilde approx. 49 km

Across the country your tour goes north to the old cathedral city of Roskilde. Roskilde Cathedral is the burial place of the Danish rulers. The bishopric of Roskilde also played an important role for Rügen. Thus it was Bishop Absalon who brought Christianity to Rügen under King Waldemar in the 12th century. In the port of Roskilde, the Viking Museum documents a lot of interesting facts about the longboats of the Vikings and their heyday. Replicas of the originals can also be admired there. Overnight stay in Roskilde.

Day 4: Roskilde - Birkerød approx. 42-63 km

Today is all about Danish castles and palaces. You cycle through the royal zoo to Hillerød. There you will find Frederiksborg Castle. It houses the Danish National History Museum. Not far to the north is Fredensborg Palace, known as the Danish Versailles. Fredensborg still serves as a summer residence for the royal family. It's a short way to Helsingør where Kronborg awaits you. Kronborg plays a major role in Shakespeare's Hamlet, which took up the story of Prince Hamlet from Danish history.

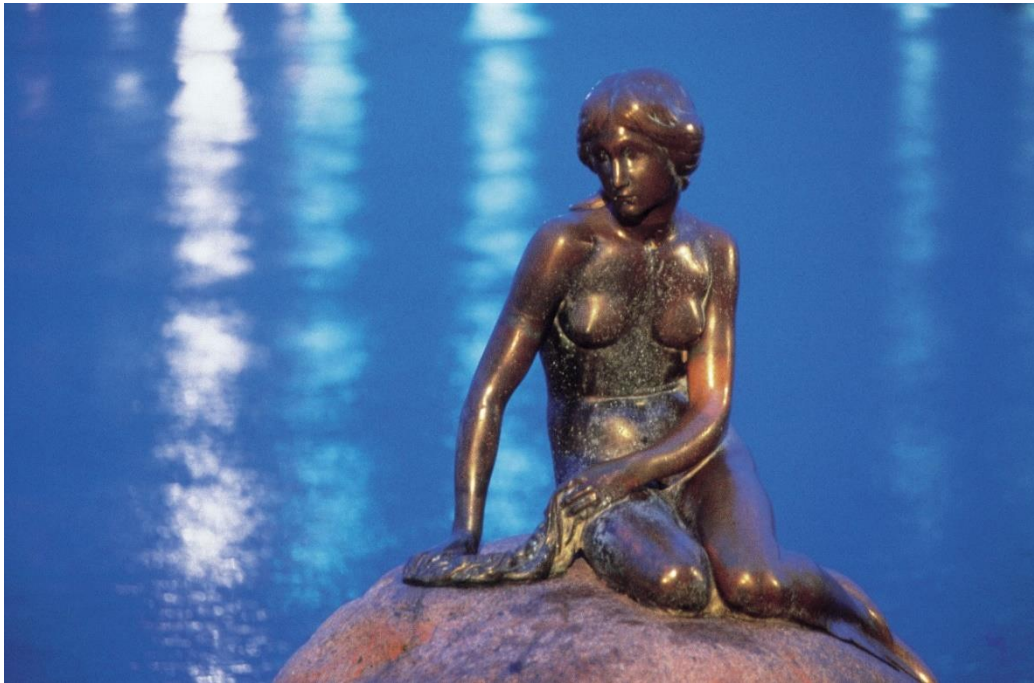

Day 5: Birkerød - Helsingør approx. 45 km

Today is dedicated to the Danish castles and palaces. You will cycle through the royal zoo to Hilleröd. There you will meet the Fredriksborg moated castle. It houses the Danish National History Museum. Not far away to the north is Fredensborg Castle, considered the Danish Versailles. Fredensborg still serves as a summer residence for the royal family. A short distance further on is Elsinore where the Kronsburg awaits you. The Kronsburg plays a major role in Shakespeare's Hamlet, which took the story of Prince Hamlet from Danish history. Overnight stay in Elsinore.

Day 6: Helsingör -Copenhagen approx. 48 km

Today belongs to Copenhagen and its sights. Discover the Danish capital by bike, which is certainly the number 1 means of transport here. Copenhagen has an excellent network of cycle paths. If you don't want to cycle, take a stroll to Nyhavn to see the little mermaid, stroll along the shopping street Strøget or visit the legendary amusement park Tivoli. Overnight stay in Copenhagen.

Day 7: Copenhagen departure

After breakfast, you will travel home on your own. If you wish, we will be happy to book additional nights in Copenhagen for you.
