Itinerary

Day 1: Welcome to Agen

Arrive at your 3 star hotel in Agen, where you will find the road book and bikes waiting for you. This beautiful city, capital of the prune, is half way between Bordeaux and Toulouse and offers a few interesting locations. Agen is a rich city with 2000 years of history, which reveals its heritage throughout medieval streets and elegant boulevards from 19th century: The Museum of Beaux-Arts (fine arts) shows five Goya paintings (including the self-portrait), among other Spanish works of the 18th and 19th centuries. Its vibrant city center, offers shops and services. Farmers' markets are a showcase of local products: foie gras, fruit and vegetables, and of course, prunes!

Day 2 : Agen – Le Temple sur Lot 59 km 90 m

From Agen you will start your cycling tour by crossing the famous bridge channel. The greenway offers you here continuous, easy and well secured kilometers. You will continue your route until Buzet to discover its vineyards then will continue on the canal of the Garonne until you reach the Lot River. You could enjoy the many stopping water places which are offered to you all along the route. "Aiguillon" marks the official departure of the velo route. Majestic rivers, medieval villages, hillsides hiding orchards, villages with feet in the water... The Lot Valley reserves you pleasant surprises. Do not miss one stop to the museum of the prune! Dinner, Night and breakfast in hotel 4*

Day 3 : Le Temple sur Lot – Villeneuve sur Lot 30 km 40 m

Today you take back the bike road in the direction of the medieval village of Villeneuve-sur-lot. You will take small, beautiful and shaded roads of the valley in the heart of the orchards of apples and producing plum trees of the famous of "Prune d'Ente" which once dried become the delicious prunes of Agen. Your route will be marked out by old bridges and superb villages such as Casseneuil, Sainte Livrade or Pujols, one of the most beautiful villages of France! Dinner, Night and breakfast in hotel 4*

Day 4 : From Villeneuve sur Lot to Puy Lévêque 57 km 200 m

From Villeneuve-sur-Lot, your route follows small roads through the orchards of plum trees in the wide area of the Lot. You will cross the beautiful village of Pujols and others remarkable perched villages, such as Montsempron-Libos and Fumel. A few kilometers away from Fumel a stop is imperative to visit one of the most beautiful fortresses of France, the castle of Bonaguil. Down from its rocky spur, it dominates for 8 centuries the
